

This citation style is the format used for most papers written within the Biblical and Theological Studies department (Intro. To Bible, J courses, etc.). Further information for any other type of sources than those listed here can be found in The SBL Handbook of Style in the library reference section.

These examples will be listed as follows: general bibliographic format, specific bibliography example, in-text citation format and example.

A Book by a Single Author:

In-text citation: (Last name Year, Page No.) (Rasmussen 1986, 68)

Bibliography: Last name of author, First name. Title in Italics. City of Publication: Publisher, Year.

Rasmussen, Carl. The Significance of the Old Testament for Today. Jerusalem: Hebrew Press, 1986.

For two or three authors:

In-text citation: (Last name & Last name Year, Page No.) (Rasmussen & Reasoner 1986, 68)

Bibliography: Last name of author 1, First name, and First name Last name of author 2. Title in Italics. City of Publication: Publisher, Year.

Rasmussen, Carl, and Mark Reasoner. The Significance of the Old Testament for Today. Jerusalem: Hebrew Press, 1986.

A Journal Article

In-text citation: (Last name Year, Page No.) (Holmes 2005, 145)

Bibliography: Last name of author, First name. "Article Title." Journal Title in Italics vol. #, no. # (Year of Issue): Page numbers of article.

Holmes, Michael. "Romans." The Life and Teachings of Paul 1, 3 (2005): 143-156.

An Article in an Encyclopedia or a Dictionary

In-text citation: (Last name Year, Page No.) (Novakovic 1995, 4)

Bibliography: Last name of author, First name. "Article Title." Pages # - # in vol. # of Title of Ency. Or Dictionary. Edited by Name of Editor. No. of Volumes. City of Publication: Publisher, Year.

Novakovic, Lidja. "Mary Magdalene: NOT a Prostitute." Pages 4-6 in vol. 7 of The Encyclopedia of Jesus and His Teachings. Edited by Gary Long. 9 vols. London: Queen's Publishing, 1995.

*If no author is listed, begin entry with the article title. The in-text citation will use the title as well.

Bible Commentaries

In-text citation: (Last name Year, Page No.) (Eddy 1987, 65)

Bibliography: Last name of author, First name. Specific Commentary Title in Italics.
General Commentary Title #. City of Publication: Publisher, Year.

Eddy, Paul. The Gospel of Mark. Spiritual Warfare in the New Testament and Today 3. Paris, France: Baguette Books, 1987.

Internet Sources

In-text citation: (Last name Year) (Bilby 2006)

Bibliography: Last name of Author (if there is one listed), First name. "Article Title." No pages. Date you found information on the site (format Day Month Year).
Online: <http://www.fullwebaddress>.

Bilby, Jim. "The Hobbits' Spiritual Journey." No pages. 4 June 2006. Online: <http://www.theologyofJRRTolkein.com/LOTR/hobbits>.

Scripture In-text References

In-text citation: (Book chapter: verses) (Matthew 5:20, 26; 3:4-5; Luke 7).

*The translation/version used is listed only at the first reference, and says that all following Biblical citations in the paper will be from that same translation. Normally, the professor decides where he/she wants this written (footnoted, or within the citation itself).

General Reminders:

*Citations should be listed in alphabetical order

*Single-Spaced

*Hanging Indent

*Check the Handbook to clarify